Anna and Esteban,

Following up on our call yesterday, we plan to file our proposed form of judgment by COB today, and would like the opportunity to review and potentially address any specific counter-proposals and objections you have to our draft before filing. To that end, and as we requested yesterday, would you please send us a draft of your proposed form of judgment—or specify your objections to our draft and provide the details of your proposal—by noon today?

Thank you,

Caitlyn
